Keep the Family Well!

Nowadays housewives realize the danger that lies in unclean foods.

In the Metropolitan Market, every precaution that makes for sanitary condition of the choice foods has been taken. Customers are not allowed to touch the meat cuts, all of which are beautifully displayed under plate glass and kept always cold by the modern refrigerating system.

Meats and other foods that you can be sure are CLEAN are cheap, and when the prices are the same as elsewhere, they are CHEAPER.

SOCIETY

MARSHALL-KINGSBURY.
The marriage of Mrs. Kingsbury, who has been with her husband for several years and where she was extremely popular, being very vivacious with a charming and very personable which endeared her to all Honolulu wishes her great happiness in her new life.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 19.—Only a few close friends were present yesterday when, at the home of the Fred Kingsburys on West Twenty-first street, Mrs. Katherine Kingsbury, widow of Judge Selden Kingsbury, former federal judge of the Philippine Islands, became the bride of John Murray Marshall of Pasadena. Rev. Charles Hubbard of Pasadena read the wedding service, which was witnessed only by Admiral and Mrs. Walter C. Cowles and their son from Redlands; Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Lewis of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. William Baker of Pasadena and Mrs. W. W. Mills.

Mrs. Kingsbury wore a smart white cloth tailored suit and hat to match, with corsage of pink roses and orchids and carried a white-bound prayer book. Immediately after the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Marshall left by motor. They plan to be at Santa Barbara some time, then go on to Del Monte for the golf and tennis tournaments, in which both are much interested, finally spending several weeks in the Santa Cruz mountains.

They will be at home late in October at 286 West Bellevue drive, Pasadena. Mr. Marshall, who was formerly president of the well-known Pasadena Twilight Club, is also a member of the Valley Hunt, Annandale and California clubs.

The wedding is the result of one of the "high speed" romances so much in vogue in these war times. Mrs. Kingsbury and Mr. Marshall having met only last January, and the engagement being of but a week's duration. Ever since Mrs. Kingsbury, who is of the Virginia Lees, came to Los Angeles to visit her son-in-law and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kingsbury, this charming woman, who is noted for her good looks, beautiful clothes and extremely smart hats, as well as her brilliant conversational ability, has been much feted. Having traveled all over the world with Judge Kingsbury, she has hosts of friends who will be much interested in the announcement of the wedding.

Mr. Marshall, who has a beautiful home at 286 West Bellevue drive, Pasadena, where he and his bride are to reside, is a member of the California, Annandale and Valley Hunt clubs. A delightful wedding trip of two months is planned by Mr. Marshall, including a motor trip to Santa Barbara, a stop at Del Monte for the golf and tennis tournament and then on into the Santa Cruz mountains. They plan to be at home in Pasadena some time in October.

RED CROSS BENEFIT AT PLEASANTON HOTEL.

Great credit is due Mrs. W. E. Morgan and Mrs. Rodys-Fenton for their untiring work in making such a tidy sum of money in such a worthy cause. The hotel and Mr. Wilmarth certainly deserve the thanks of the Red Cross for the generosity extended. Eventually every thing given here will be for Red Cross work, and the attitude of the management of the Pleasanton hotel was a step in the right direction which it is hoped will be followed by every hotel in the city. The following are responsible for the success that this entertainment was:

WELL KNOWN SOCIETY SERVICE WOMAN VISITS ALAMEDA HOME.

A service woman who was very popular in Honolulu is visiting her Alameda home for a little while.

A cordial welcome is being extended to the attractive young army matron, Mrs. George Halloran, wife of Captain Halloran, U. S. A., who will be remembered as Miss Reta Hunter of Alameda, before her marriage a few seasons ago. Mrs. Halloran has taken apartments at the Fairmont in San Francisco for a short time, and after a visit with her family will go on to New York where Captain Halloran has been ordered. Since her marriage Mrs. Halloran has lived in Honolulu.—San Francisco Examiner, August.

A WORD ABOUT KNITTING

And now some say they are too high strung to knit. They just simply can't learn the intricacies of stitches. It gives them nervous prostration. That is the very latest thing to swank about. Rolling bandages, of which there is still a poignant need abroad, is even worse. If the bandages were only bright colors or something like that, but the monotony of white and the sameness of the rolls, "just gets on my nerves."

Still one can go to knitting teas, arriving just in time for the chatter and the refreshments, or one can take the knitters to tea down town and do one's bit that way. There are so many ways of being patriotic if one is really sincere that there ought to be jobs enough, right in society, for everyone to keep occupied pleasantly.

VISITORS IN SAN FRANCISCO

Interesting visitors in San Francisco at the present time are Col. F. M. Swigert and his daughter, Mrs. Augustus McIntyre. They arrived last week from Honolulu, accompanied by Maj. McIntyre, and while the latter has already departed for his new station at Fort Sill, Okla., they are enjoying a brief visit here. They are guests of their cousins, Capt. and Mrs. Jarius Moore, at Fort Winfield Scott.

Capt. and Mrs. Moore are hourly anticipating orders to leave Fort Scott, and in consequence they have been able to entertain only most informally for the visitors.—S. F. Examiner.

HAWAIIAN HEIRESS TO JOIN RED CROSS

To join the Red Cross unit being sent to the French front by Johns Hopkins university, one of the wealthiest heiresses of Hawaii, Miss M. T. Wilcox, arrived in San Francisco yesterday.

With her father, S. W. Wilcox, one of the largest landed proprietors of the islands, Miss Wilcox is at the Cliff hotel.

Miss Wilcox has previously taken a three years' course at Johns Hopkins university. She has many friends in San Francisco society.—San Francisco Examiner, August 3.

STIMULATING DELIGHTS

Mrs. Henry Davis has returned to San Francisco after passing a most enjoyable vacation at Honolulu. During her visit to the island city, Mrs. Davis was extensively entertained by the society contingent there. During her absence, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morris and Miss Adrean Flowers occupied Mrs. Davis' home on Masonic avenue. They will continue to live there for several months, closing their home on Washington street for the winter.—San Francisco Chronicle, August 3.

TO TAHOE BY AUTO.

Captain and Mrs. Seth Scofield, U. S. A., motored to Tahoe Tavern last week. A large number of Los Angeles and southern California people are motoring to the lake this year. Among recent parties to arrive there are: Mr. and Mrs. George E. Robinson of Santa Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williams, San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Fraser, Ocean Park; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Eskridge of Los Angeles.—San Francisco Examiner, Aug. 19.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The engagement of Henry J. Lyman and Miss Frances H. Thompson, principal of Makaweli school, was announced at a dinner given at the Young hotel on Monday night, by Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Shingle, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shingle, who left for San Francisco by the steamer Wilhelmina yesterday afternoon. The bridegroom-elect has large planting interest at Kapoho, Hawaii.

DIPLOMAS ARRIVE FOR RED CROSS STUDENTS

Mrs. Clarence W. Ashford has received from Washington the diplomas for Class 6, of which she was chairman, and asks that all who call at her home and receive their award for their six weeks' hard work. Mrs. Ashford was justly proud of her class and is anxious that all should have their diplomas.

HONOLULUANS TO TAHOE

Mrs. J. E. Fisher, Miss J. Fisher, J. H. Fisher, and Dr. L. O'Neal, all of Honolulu were visitors at the Travelers' hotel yesterday. They are on their way to Lake Tahoe, using the machine that they shipped from home.—Sacramento Union, August 4.

The following card has been sent to friends of the B. P. O. E. of Honolulu:

The Elks of Honolulu request the presence of yourself and lady friends at an informal dance at the Moana hotel, Saturday evening, September 1, 1917. Full moon that evening. Dancing begins at 8:30 o'clock. Dress informal. Music by Duke Miller's orchestra.

Mrs. E. A. Jones, Mrs. E. Austin Jones and Miss Kathryn Jones left on the Wilhelmina last evening. Mrs. E. Austin Jones goes in answer to a cable telling of the serious illness of her father, Mr. T. W. Hobron. Miss Kathryn goes back East to college.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shingle were departing passengers on the Wilhelmina yesterday afternoon after a month's stay, which was a month of society and social happenings in their honor. However, everything given for them was of an informal nature.

Col. A. N. McNab (Sandy), who is one of the most dearly loved of officers stationed here, left for the mainland yesterday. There never has been an officer here better liked than Sandy McNab and all of Hawaii hopes that he will soon come back.

Col. and Mrs. S. Lincoln, who have lived here for the past two years, and have been justly popular, left for the mainland on the Wilhelmina yesterday. A large circle of friends were down to say aloha and cover them with fragrant leis.

Word comes from Mr. and Mrs. W. Birnie Tait (Francesa Murphy) and her sister, Miss Alediza Murphy, that they are planning to spend next month in Hawaii. They wrote they were all homesick for the Isles of Peace.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Scudder, with their son and daughter, were home coming passengers yesterday after a month at the Volcano House.

Miss Dorothy Peacock left yesterday for her second year at Notre Dame. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. C. A. Peacock.

Mrs. E. C. Marlett left for the mainland after a delightful three months here as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. Gear.

Mr. F. Werthmuller and his sister, Miss E. Werthmuller, left for a short vacation trip to the mainland yesterday.

Mrs. Isabelle Creighton was a home-comer today after a three months' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Conrad.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Wilder are home after two weeks on Hawaii. They took their motor with them.

Miss Thelma Murphy will return home on Saturday morning after a two months' stay on Hawaii.

Among the recent visitors at the Mount Diablo Park Club was Miss Ramona Marks of Honolulu.

Mrs. Ambrose Wirtz, accompanied by her small son, left for a trip to the mainland Tuesday.

Miss Marjorie Booth departed for San Francisco yesterday to reenter Notre Dame college.

Mrs. Irene Holloway was a homecoming passenger on the Mauna Kea yesterday morning.

Miss Violet Atherton left for San Francisco on yesterday's Wilhelmina for a short trip.

Miss Lila Creigg is in Honolulu again after a delightful month on Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Shaw are home from a short vacation spent on Hawaii.

Miss Stephanie Wichman leaves next week for the East to enter college.

Mrs. W. H. Hissman will arrive in Honolulu next Tuesday after two week she is the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Patten and Mrs. Williams.

Miss Ella Wight left for a short mainland visit yesterday.

QUEEN NOT TO HOLD RECEPTION

Queen Liliuokalani will be 79 years of age next Sunday, but so feeble has her majesty become during the last few months that the usual reception will not be held.

For years it has been the custom of the Hawaiian people to come at the first peep of dawn, bringing gifts of fruits, flowers, fish and calabashes and bearing words of aloha to the gracious queen.

Last birthday a reception was held, though not so extensive as those of former years owing to the strain such affairs were beginning to have upon her. In the afternoon the queen received a few of her closest friends at the Waikiki home. This year it is announced no reception whatever will be held. The last public reception tendered by Queen Liliuokalani was in April when she received the members of the territorial senate at her home in Washington Place. This was the day war opened with Germany, and the American flag flew that day for the first time over her home.

PERSONALITIES

MISS DOROTHY PERRY of 814 Kilauea street celebrated her 11th birthday yesterday afternoon by a party.

MISS ROSELLE F. FAAST, a teacher of Kawaiahoi, who has been on the mainland for two years, arrived this morning on the Maui to resume her work.

WILLIAM VANNATTA, superintendent of the Hilo water works, left yesterday afternoon for a trip to New York City and New Jersey. He is a native of New Jersey, which he has not visited for 40 years.

HARRY L. ABELL and his sister, Miss Hazel Abell, arrived this morning on the Maui to accept positions with the Mid-Pacific Institute. Miss Abell will teach at Kawaiahoi seminary and Mr. Abell at Mills school.

ROY I. GANFIELD, commercial instructor at Mills school during the last year, arrived this morning from the mainland with his bride. Mr. and Mrs. Ganfield will teach during the coming year on the island of Maui.

The "Electrical" Home Is Cool and Comfortable

For every member of the family—
For every room in the house—
For every hour of the day and night—there's something Electrical to increase the pleasure and happiness of living.

Electrical Appliances now cover such a field of usefulness that, with their aid, running a home becomes largely a matter of planning and direction.

The burden of washing, ironing, preparing food, cooking and cleaning is entirely removed. Electric fans cool the rooms. Electric light softens and beautifies the surroundings.

Electricity adds that improvement which makes real living out of mere existence. You can't have your home really up to present day standards without Electricity shouldering the burden of housework—without its many conveniences and comforts.

Hot weather makes a careful consideration of this matter immediately important.

Let us help you plan—we make that our business.
